My fellow citizens of the 24th California Congressional District,

"Moral courage is a rarer commodity than great intelligence or bravery in battle" said playwright, George Bernard Shaw. What happens when moral courage meets petty party politics? Michele Weslander Quaid happens.

"Politics is the art of the possible...the attainable." said Prime Minister, Otto von Bismarck. What happens when voters rise up in rebellion against party, fools, frauds, and sycophants? Michele Weslander Quaid happens.

You can read all about her years of experience in public service, her dedication to parental choice in education, and her constitutional principles and values on her website. Pay attention to her astute opening:

"The United States of America is the home of the free, because of the brave. America's founders created a constitutional republic where "We The People" are the sovereign to protect each citizen's inalienable rights, understanding that a just government derives its power from the consent of the governed." <https://www.micheleweslanderquaid.com/>

We have now, in this June primary election, and in the November general election, the chance to elect a 24th Congressional District Representative who is a true constitutional independent. Michele Weslander Quaid appeals not only across party barricades, but also appeals to libertarian voters and voters who have quit all political parties. Vote the person, not the party.

Do what you can for her...else you have no warrant to complain you are not properly represented. Make Michele Weslander Quaid happen.
